

Concordia University Dual Credit

Concordia University has several fully online courses available for Second Semester, 2017. You can find the list on our Dual Credit website .

The Concordia application deadline is December 1, 2017 .

That means that students should get the Preliminary Agreement to the Guidance office by March 30, for the summer and June 1, for the fall term, so that the office has time to fill out the form and get the transcripts to Concordia University.

Please know that Concordia University has just revised the application process for all students. You will find the updated instructions and updated links below.

Concordia University has updated the Preliminary Agreement and the Dual Credit Handbook.

Application Process For New Dual Credit Applicants

The student should:

1. THIS STEP MUST BE COMPLETED FIRST. Go to online.cuw.edu/dcapply. The student will be required to create an account. The student should apply as a “Dual Credit” student by choosing the appropriate Dual Credit link based on the student’s residence.
2. Ask the high school counselor to send a copy of the official high school transcripts.
3. Complete the Preliminary Agreement, sign it, have a parent sign it, and give the form to the high school counselor. He/she will then complete the final portion of the form and send it directly to the admission counselor at Concordia University at dualcredit@cuw.edu.

Application Process For Returning Dual Credit Students

The returning student should:

1. Complete the Preliminary Agreement, sign it, have a parent sign it, and give the form to the high school counselor. He/she will then complete the final portion of the form and send it directly to the admission counselor at Concordia University at dualcredit@cuw.edu.

The university will notify students if acceptance is granted or not.
