FESTIVAL OF SEASONS BOUTIQUE

RULES & REGULATIONS

Please read through the following rules and regulations carefully. We ask that they be followed at all times.

1. Set-up time on Saturday morning is between 6:30 AM and 9 AM.

Take-down time on Saturday afternoon is between 3 PM and 5 PM. Our students will be available to help you move your items in and out of the building.

Crafters must not dismantle or begin to dismantle their booths, pack up their craft items or leave before the boutique closes at 3 PM.

2. Crafters are not allowed to bring food or beverages into the fair, with the exception of water. Your booth charge includes one lunch, consisting of a sandwich or soup, chips, choice of beverage, and a cookie. Each additional lunch is $5.00.
3. Crusader Volunteers has the right to reject any application.
4. St. Croix Lutheran Academy Students will also hold a bake sale during the Craft Sale, therefore we prefer you do not sell homemade food items.
5. Tables and booth: Each booth is approximately 10' by 8' with two chairs and 1 table. All tables must be covered to the floor. There is a limited supply of additional tables.
6. All arts and crafts must be hand-made. No imports, please, although we do allow 10 reseller booths to the show as approved – one per company only.
7. No smoking. School policy prohibits smoking in the building.
8. Registration fees of $60 are not refundable if registration form is accepted.
9. It is understood that the Crusader Volunteers, St. Croix Lutheran Academy and all of its employees, the Craft Boutique Committee and all those connected with the boutique shall be held harmless and relieved of any responsibility with the Crafters, damages, liabilities or losses.
10. St. Croix Lutheran Academy is a Christian Educational facility. We reserve the right to restrict the display and sale of items displaying symbolism contrary to Christian tradition.
